Thank you for your support.

BEDA was founded to help those who have binge eating disorder, their friends and family, and those who treat the disorder. Your donation will help us achieve our mission to focus on the unmet need to prevent, diagnose, and treat binge eating disorder. BEDA is committed to facilitating awareness, quality of care, and recovery for those who live and those who work with binge eating disorder through education, resources, research, and best-practice guidelines.

Choose Your Support Level:

All levels of support will receive recognition in the program book at BEDA's annual conference and on our web site.
